John Beck Confesses Judgment In

-Miscellaneous Court Notes.

Martha A. Critchlow has filed suit against the Draper Irrigating company, praying for a decree of the court compelling the officers of the defendant company to transfer on its books 30 shares of the capital stock of the company to the name of the plaintiff. In the complaint it is alleged that on Nov. 2, ISSI, plaintiff loaned R. A. Ballantyne $1,000, and as collateral security Ballantyne assigned and delivered to the plaintiff the 30 shares of stock in question Eallantyne falled to vein question. Ballantyne falled to re-pay the loan, and plaintiff became the owner of the stock, which is valued at $525.

The company refused to make th transfer on its books, and plaintiff now asks for an order of the court di-recting the transfer to be made; or, if that cannot be done, for judgment for its value, $525.

writes a very interesting letter to his brother Harry. The following are extracts, which will be found quite interesting reading:

"Dawson City. June 13, 1898.

"Arrived in this place on May 15, two days earlier than a boat ever got down the river before. We followed the lee from Le Barge and had good luck never to get wet or less a pound of provisions, although i heard there was a report that we were lost.

"This is a great country. I spent eight days up in the mines and saw gold galore-pans full of it. Sulphur and Dominion creeks, on the Indian river, bid fair to rival, if not outdo, the Klondike. I staked a bench claim on Dominion. Belleve it to be good. It looks very good but the mining laws are in such bad shape that it is almost a closed country for one not on the inside or for a man not able to tip officials. I think we will make some money here in spite of them.

A GOOD SALARY.

A GOOD SALARY.

"I have an offer of $400 a month to open a new restaurant for the Healys of the North American Transportation & Trading company, and my wife can get $10 or $12 a day and board any day she wants to go to work cooking.

"There was no shortage of provisions hast winter, but a great deal of food was held for speculation, and when the boats came down the river, goods brought very fancy prices. One outfit brought eggs and sold them for $15 a dozen. Another had oranges at $1 aplece. Fresh potatoes and onlons brought $1 a pound; tobacco, $10 a pound; A cargo of whisky brought $60 a gallon. Moose meat, or, in fact, any s gallon. Moose meat, or, in fact, any fresh meat, is worth $2 a pound at the markets, and I have seen them pay $1.50 a pound by the carcass. One big old ox sold on the street for $1 a pound, live weight. Stetson hats are worth, 'an ounce," $15; rubber boots, $25 a pair; daily papers, from 50 cents to $2.50, according to age. We got word that war was declared, about May 25, but had rumors of it much earlier. 25, but had rumors of it much earners. Wages here on the outside are $1 to $1.50 an hour. Meals at hotels and restaurants are $2.50. If you want something to cat, it is $5 or more. Canned tomatoes and vegetables are luxuries and have been selling at $2 a can; condensed milk, $1.25 a can. NEWS OF SALT LAKERS.

"Tom Lloyd is doing right well, I think, and will come out all right. He is rustling all the time. Donovan's friend has sold out and is going out to the states. Donovan is packing to the mines. The people here are very nice and pleasant and the old-timers see how much they can do to make it pleasant for one socially.

JOHNNY BECHTOL.

John Bechtol, who used to run the Walker bouse bar in Salt Lake is another seeking wealth in the camp. Mr. Bechtol is not digging for nuggets, however, but dispensing Klondike cocktalls, for which he receives the snug little salary of $20 per day. But, according to Quinlan, he pays out the biggest part of it for subsistence. "John told me he paid $5 a night for a place to lay his blankets and $1.50 for every meal, so you see, a man can't save so much money as you would think from the amount of nay he gett."

"Big Mike Sullivan, who used to be price fights and called after using it you don't say so, return the package and get your money. Sold by Nelden-Judson and other druggists.

Dawson, men who manage to live, but no more. A man who has a business can make money, and it don't matter much what kind of business. But for a person to go there as a laboring man, without anything but his hands to depend on, is bad policy. The country is overrun and hundreds of them haven't money enough to get out."

RATES FOR VETERANS. Black Hawk Warriors Can Go to

Provo Cheap. Rates are announced by the Utah lines for the reunion of the veterans of the Black Hawk war, which will be held at Provo on Aug. 24, 25 and 28, the same being one single fare for the round trip. The circular issued by the Western was made public yesterday, and prescribes that a one-fare rate be made from Salt Lake City, Murray, Bingham Junction and Riverton on Aug. 24; from Silver City, Mammoth and Eureka on Aug. 24; Manti and intermediate points on the Sampete and Eureka on Aug. 24; Manti and in-termediate points on the Sampete branch on the same date, and from all points in Utah county, Lehi to Goshen and Scoffeld inclusive, on the 24th, 25th and 26th. All tlekets limited to date of sale on the going trip, with final limit of Aug. 23.

The Western and Union Pacific have announced rates of a fare and a third on the certificate plan for the annual meeting of the life underwriters, which Judgment by confession was yester-day entered for $1,000 in favor of the Salt Lake Valley Loan & Trust com-pany against Morris R. Evans. The amount is the balance of a loan of $5,000.

INCREASING THE PLANT.

Diamondville Mines Adding $500,-000 In Machinery.

Although the output of the Diamond vilie coal mines at present is only about 50 cars per day, owing to the summer season being on, very soon it is expected there will be a great increase. pected there will be a great increase, as the company is preparing to place new machinery, costing in the aggregate $500,000. This outlay in increasing the value of the plant is due to the fact that the machinery on hand is not adequate for the demands made for coal. The mines are in splendid condition, and the work which has been done in the past in the way of development has placed them in such a condition that with increased facilities the output can be made very large. The work of placing this machinery will in no wise interfere with the operation of the mine, and it will be all ready by the time the business of the winter begins.

WILL BE DISAPPOINTED. Passenger Meeting at Omaha Called

Off. General Passenger Agent Burley of the Short Line and General Passenger Agent Wadleigh of the Western are on their way to Omaha, where they think they are going to attend a meeting of the Western Passenger association, but they are mistaken. After they had started, the meeting was deciared off. It was to have been held tomorrow, and Burley and Wadleigh will discover when in Omaha that they rave been fooled, and will be angry and hot peals to the traveler like the great under the collar.
